All business communications should be addressed to Power & Barksdale, Jackson, Miss. To Correspondents .- The names of the editors of The CLARION are at the head of its columns. They are entitled to equal recognition and consideration. Communications for the paper are frequently addressed to one of them individually and if Its leaders therefore when they go about he happens to be absent, they do not receive to make proselytes, seeking whom they prompt attention. Matter for publication should be sent to "Editors of THE CLARION."

How do you enjoy the idea of furnishing food twice in one year for the tax-

Jones County.

The Conservatives of Jones county have nominated Horr. V. A. Collins, who will of course be elected.

The foes of Radicalism have made a clean sweep in Kentucky. For the first time in a State election, the colored element voted, but it has scarcely made an impression upon the overwhelming Con- favorite game of theirs in counties where servative majority. The election was they have no hope of victory in bringing held on Monday.

The Pilot responds to our figures showing that the out-at-elbows fellows public plunder in this State, by citing the alleged extravagance of the authorities of New York City! We do not exactly see the relevancy of the plea, but we have no doubt it is the best that has yet been put in for the plunderers.

The Vicksburg News reports that Gov. Alcorn in his speech at Vicksburg, stated that "Scanlan was imprisoned be-"cause having stated he knew of the exist-"ence of the ku-klux organization and was "member thereof, yet he refused to testify "further touching matters connected "therewith and affecting the persons of "prisoners on trial, upon the plea that "enough to cover all "he would thus criminate himself."

We are amazed and indignant that the Governor of the State could have lent himself to the circulation of this libel, which originated in the Radical papers here, against this outraged citizen. The statement is directly the reverse of the truth. Mr. Scanlan so far from stating that "he knew of the existence of the Ku Klux organization and was member thereof," declared that he did not know of the existence of such an organization. and was not a member thereof.

An amusing Herald account of Radical pow-wow in Vicksburg, showing how a dozen or more carpet-baggers cheated the darkies in the appointment of delegates to the State Convention, and how the latter held an independent meeting and set up for themselves-is crowded out of to-day's paper. It will not Onth-Bound Union (Loyal) Lea-guers on the Grand Jury.

Mr. Scanlan, the political prisoner, confined in the county jail, is a man of his good name listen to the promises of has he ever known a measure of similar truth and conscience, and has testified before the grand jury that he is not a member of the Ku Klux Klan; that he knows no person who is; and that he is sons who have not been in their Ring on entirely ignorant of any facts touching the ly in counties where they are in a hope order. He is not sentenced to prison less minority; and are trying to buy them therefore for refusing to tell anything he up with even less than a mess of pottage. may know on that subject, for he has made a clean breast of it. But he is punished for being a member, or on the tives, as you value your honor and good the laws, was not ample provision made supposition of being a member of a name, stick to your party and hold out political association and for refusing to faithful to the end, whether you succeed recognize the right of any set of men to in getting a nomination or not. If your institute an inquisition into his political opinions and to require him to reveal the plans, secrets, &c., if any, of any party to which he may belong.

and to charge that there are members of this same jury who have instigated this punishment of Mr. Scanlan, who themselves belong to a secret oath-bound political "transpire in their presence," on the occasion of initiation-that "in the pres-"ence of Almighty God" "with uplifted "hand," they have sworn "to keep secret "and at no time to reveal to any person, "or persons, or otherwise in any manner and secrets of this order, but to state Can any apologist of the expenditure the well-grounded belief that members of explain, further than that it was a the Grand Jury which has instituted pro- part of the general system of plunscriptive proceedings against a peaceable dering the people of the State for the and law-abiding citizen to the extent of benefit of the adventurers. incarcerating him in the county jail for And now, while the Pilot's hand is in the reason that he will not concede their will it explain whether THE CLARION was right to inquire into the secrets of a po- correct in stating that the tax-payers have litical organization to which he is suppos- been robbed of FORTY-ONE THOUSAND ed to belong, are themselves members of a Dollars for printing in pamphlet form At-Arms for traveling expenses to Vicks make a better run for the Indiana Penipolitical society whose secrets they are bound the previously advertised list of delin by oath not to reveal. If we are in error, quent tax lands? We want an answer to let them substantiate it by submitting to that! the application of the test in their own cases which they have applied to Mr. Scanlan, And if they do hold themselves Potts, of Montana, asks for troops to bound to keep sacred the obligation of protect the settlers from the Indians. secrecy which they have incurred, in What an outrageous request. Does not bill which was passed by his partizans reference to their order, how dare they Gov. Potts know that the troops are as a Radical scheme, is a confession prosecute this inquisition in the case of Mr. | needed to assist in the political persecu-Scanlan? "Ye blind guides which strain tions now going on throughout the South? measure. Why, then, did he not reto at a gnat and swallow a came! Wo Has he not heard that they are required it? Unless returned to the Legislature to protect one wing of the Republican by the Covernor with his objections "unto ye, Scribes and Pharisees, Hypo- to protect one wing of the Republican by the Governor with his objections party of Louisiana from the other? For within three days after the pext meeting

"INDEPENDENTS."

The Radical schemers are repeating he old game of temptation which is re ded of the arch fiend who took th promised him many things, if he would fall down and worship him.

Nor more than Satan had of truth and virtue in his cause, have the Mongrel spoilsmen in their principles to commend them to the support of the good and virtuous. Theirs is a party of iniquity and rottenness throughout. With the exception that even its exterior is repulsive, it is described by the familiar illustration of the sepulchre full of dead men's bones and reeking with corruption. may devour, invariably address themselves to the vilest passions and to the meanest motives of action. On the one hand they play upon the race prejudices of the blacks and try to cultivate strife between them and the whites; and on the other, they hold out tempting so faithfully represented that county in offers of dividing plunder with the whites the last Legislature, for the next. He whom they may select as victims of their wiles. To save them from perdition, Democratic Victory in Kentucky. they cannot point to a single virtuous, or commendable, aim of their party. We have heard many accounts of the naneuvering of these worthies. It is a out Simon Pure Loyal Leaguers as their candidates to offer all sorts of inducements to Independents. Say they, to a have carried on a wholesale system of suspected Soft-Heart or Sore-Head, only run against the regular "nominee of the *Conservatives, and you shall have all the Executive office. vour heart can wish. Our love for "you is beyond degree! What if you 'are an unwashed secession Democrat? What if you are dead against the 15th amendment? What if you are an unrepentant rebel? What if you have in your thoughts by day and dreams by vastly more than at present. "night, repeated Greeley's sermon on the "carpet-baggers, 'Get Out Thieves,' the "mantle of our grace is broad > Such counties as Rankin, Lauderdale, Chickasaw, Marshall, etc., are the fields in which these Radical operators have spread their tents for the performance of their tricks. We have heard some amusing stories of the way in which they have operated, and we may lift the curtain for a wider view of their performances than large quantities of their lands are now be they have bargained for.

"Only promise this much and the bar-

It is not to be supposed that in a game of this cort, the "Prov Oncasinen, Modest Muss, with

"His smile, so childlike and bland,"ould stand aloof.

Now, let the opposers of Radical mis rule beware of this favorite Satan game of temptation. Let no man who values these unscrupulous schemers. They are offering to divide the plunder with per-Therefore we would say to all conservatime is not now, it will come ere long;

To the anti-Radical voters at large we sters, as "Independents."

$3,593 00. The Radical organs here are both cack-"or form so that at any time any part or ling over a new laid egg. They have dis-"known, by or in consequence of this ob- the Black and Tan Convention was $3,- necessary furniture for the comfortable "ligation of secresy, so help me God and 593.84, instead of $15,000, as THE CLA- abode of the Governor of the State. And "keep me steadfast in this my purpose RION had been informed. Very well, we in this condition it was delivered over to the persons who have taken this vow of pended the amount stated without bene- and fixtures had been stolen or otherwise secresy in reference to the Order to which fit to the public. What possible good to made way with by the said Ames. And they belong, are also pledged by an oath the people has resulted from this expen- under these circumstances how does he "to vote only for, and none but those who diture? Tens of thousands of copies of justify, especially in the present distressed advocate and support the principles" of the | the Constitution framed by the Conven- and impoverished state of the tax-payers same oath-bound Political Organization. tion have been put in the hands of the the exorbitant appropriation of forty-four and had the male cuss put in jail on a charge of adultery.—Chicago Times. Our present intention is not tax-payers at their own expense; and of thousand dollars under pretence of repaircomment on the character, purposes, what practical utility is this Journal? - ing and refurnishing it?

A Washington dispatch says: Gov. "the cup and the platter, but within are shame that he should make such a of the Legislature, it will become a law. "full of extortion and excess," request.

MATTERS REQUIRING INVESTIGATION AND

The personal organ of Gov. Alcorn has said, that he will answer for himself on the stump, the inquiry we have propounded in reference to his aiding and abetting the Radical authorities in Wash-Ington in working the machinery of the atrocious Bayonet Bill, after positively averring that there was no occasion for such procedure—that the reports 'implicating our people in lawlessness and violence were "libels" uttered by "theives" snd "knaves"-and that the "State presented an unbroken evidence, of civil obedience and order."

There are other matters in which the people of the State are also interested and concerning which they will require answers. Among the rest-

WHERE IS THE UNIVERSAL AMNESTYthat was promised the people by the Re publican rolers in the event a Radical State Administration should be installed in this State? In place of Universal Amnesty, they have been victimized by the horrible Force Bill and other vindic tive measures, in the passage of which the very partizans who promised amnesty, eagerly participated.

And there are many glaring facts his mis-management of their State which he will be required to face before an outraged and plundered people.

He will be required to answer, why, after convicting as he has done in divers messages, the Mongrel majority in the Legislature of enacting measures by which the people have been robbed, does he persist in the conspiracy to extend their lease of power and to license them for another two years of plunder. His public documents prove that they are not fit to be entrusted with the State government, and this was the reason why he has assigned for remaining thus long in

INCREASE OF EXPENDITURES. The annual expenditures of the State government under scalawag, carpet-bag rule are more than double as much they were under the administration of Gov. Humphrey's, immediately succeeding the war, when the cost of living was

Why are the annual expenses of the State government four times more than the average annual expenses during the decade just preceding the war?

Why are one million one hundred and 'sins if you will permit us to use you as fifty thousand dollars per annum, re-'a tool to break down the organization of quired to carry on the State government 'the people whose cause has been yours. | under the Mongrel rule, when the property of the State is valued at $180,000,-000: while but $350,000 were required to carry it on before the war upon a valnation of $600,000,000? INCREASED TAXATION.

> Why, when the people of both races were in a condition of absolute impoverishment resulting from the desolation of the war, did he approve the laws which have increased the tax-burdens of the people four-fold, and in virtue of which ing sold under the Sheriff's hammer? THE SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR

How comes it that he signed a law appropriating six hundred thousand dollars out of the State Treasury without even so much as specifying a single item for which this enormous sum was voted During his whole career as a member of over a period of thirty years, or upwards, enormity to be enacted?

What has become of the fifty thousand ollars voted him as a Secret Service Fund ! Does he know, in his long legislative experience, of an appropriation of this character before? If it was to enable him to preserve the peace and enforce for this purpose in the establishment of the Courts with power to execute their decrees, and to maintain which the people have been taxed three times in excess of the cost before the war. How and a postponement of your own aspira- many spies and informers are pensioned tions will enhance the obligation of your on this fund? How many arrests have Now, we have good reason to believe friends to strive the harder for you in the been made? How many convictions? How much of it has been expended?

As Republican government in fact, is based on the principle of the responsiwould say that the true policy is to sup- bility of the agent to the people, and organization and have incurred "a solemn port all the regular nominations, and to its accountability for all its acts "obligation of secresy as to whatever may stand aloof from such notisances worked especially including the expenditure of up for the occasion by the mongrel trick- money collected from their pockets-does he claim exemption from the duty of accounting for this fund?

FORTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THE

When Gov. Humphreys vacated this Mansion for its occupancy by the shoul-

and useless appropriations (the accounts District in 1868. After his defeat he rendered and already published in these returned to Indiana and when last was columns) for refurnishing the halls and heard from was stumping Indiana for the committee rooms of the Capitol, includ- purpose of abusing Southerners in gening items of eleven hundred dollars ex- eral and Mississippians in particular. pended by the colored carpet bag Sergeant | We are happy in the belief that he will burg incurred in purchasing the same? tentiary than he did for Congress. Was not his approval of this cruel extortion mere favoritism to his companionorator in the late canvass and member of his military family?

His declining to sign the Penitentiary that it was an unworthy and imp Does he intend to remain in the Executive office and veto it, or permit it to become a law, thus doing indirectly what he had not the moral courage to do openly, viz: approve it? The enormity ample security for the faithful perform-A SIXTEEN THOUSAND DOLLAR ITEM. Where is the return for the $16,000 which Gen. Stafford, Major General by the Governor's appointment, states were expended "in organizing the Militia"?

THE PENITENTIARY BILL.

of the Leader.

INCREASE OF INDEBTEDNESS. How comes it that after the manage ment of the State by her bona fide citizens for the years 1865, '66, '67 and '68, her indebtedness as represented by warrants outstanding amounted to but two hundred and eleven thousand eleven hunlred and thirty-five dollars-and after ighteen months of carpet-bag legislation, the ascertained and estimated debt is not less than one million and a half of dollars, and six months of the year 1871 vet to be provided for? And this result has been accomplished, notwithstanding the immense tavation which but for the downright robberies in the name of law would have paid all the expenses of the State government-absorbed every warrant issued-and left a large balance in cash in the State Treasury.

ance of their contract.

"LEARNED IN THE LAW." How does he account for the appoint ment of such charlatans and pretenders as Alderson, Ben. Cunningham and others of that kidney to the bench, when he to expound the laws and administer justice in this State?

DUPLICATING OFFICE-HOLDERS. Why did he appoint members of the Legislature to county offices, and continue them in office, after their refusal to abandon their seats and their conviction of drawing double salaries and farming out the places he had conferred upon them?

THE PENAL TRANSPORTATION ATROCITY. actment of the atrocity known as the Change of Venue Bill, which provided and who after the war, as a member of to the powers that be by grand juries not of the counties in which the offences charged against them may have been committed, and their transportation for trial by juries not of the vicinage? This meas- ures, are ure was so revolting in its provisions, uncontitutional, and unjust, and opthat even a vindictive and unscruputo pass it; and it is still suspended, of the United States Army has ordered the to be revived at another session and pass- of making ed if the complexion of the body is not changed.

"PICKED CAVALRY."

Does he persist in the "Picked Cavalry" (we know what "picked" men are, according to the ideas of Radical rulers) atrocity for quartering bands of armed marauders on the people of any county who may happen not to be in favor with the incumbent of the Executive office, after the example of the Kirk-Bergen outlaws in North Carolina, who seized peaceable citizens in that State without warrant-rob the Mississippi Legislature extending bed and destroyed their estates without conscience, and punished without conviction. To carry out this system of legal- African element) of persons who are not ized depredation-of murdering innocent and never have been recognized as citizens appropriation of ONE HUNDRED THOU- a majority of persons on this floor (that is SAND DOLLARS was contemplated. It passed one branch of the Legislature; or have been elected by illegal votes; thereand failed to be acted upon in the pressure of other vile schemes which were hurried through that body. It is record- and is not competent to make amendmen ed as one of the favorite measures of the present administration, and its final passage can only be arrested by the choice of a Legislature pledged against it.

These are some of the matters which the people require shall be investigated the United States. and explained, and on which they have ment remain to be added.

"and binding obligation." And that stand corrected. Then here has been ex- the present occupant unless the furniture paper pellet by the irate Jacobson. The against Radicalism? correspondence speaks for itself,

> Railsback Heard From. Miss Irving, of Remington, Indiana, recently eloped with a married man named Railsback. The father of the girl went out

The above item doubtless refers to Why did he sanction the extravagant ran for Congress in the 2nd Congressional

The Kentucky Victory.

The victory over the Radicals in Ken-

A Looking-Glass for the Editor

tion of half million of dollars worth of for his labors on that paper. These la-shadow of foundation to rest upon. labor and three hundred and ntnety thous- bors consist in studied efforts to prove We have another case in point. In and dollars in solid cash out of the pockets the "treachery" of the party with whom his exerness to convict of "treachery" of the people to a favorite lessee, when he was lately associated; to show their the Democratic party of which he claimed there were other parties offering to pay unfitness to be trusted with political pow- to be so true and loyal a member in the they are governed, because they do not Leader.) kiss the rod that smites them and will not sing hallelujahs to the authors of the atrocious bayonet acts in virtue of which they are seized by Federal soldiery in are quaranteed to them by the State Constitution now in force. their homes without warrant, and dragged away from their families, and incarcerated in distant prisons, and held for trial on charges originating in the malice and selfishness of imported office-holders .-And to make them an altogether acceptible offering to Mongrelism, the labors of the Leader editor are varied with laudation of the adventurers who in the several capacity of Freedman's Bureau agents and office-holders and partizan leaders have stirred up strife between the races, and plundered both with such a high hand that Horace Greeley, after personal observation and inquiry into their acts, has branded them as a combination of "theives," whose expulion from power in the South is absolutely requisite to save even the Radical from

Now, all this abuse of the opposers of Radical misrule; all this praise, of the iron hand which falls heavily upon a had the best talent of the State to select plundered and oppressed people; all this their own after the old one had been per- as the editor of the Leader. verted to the uses of fanaticism and of robbery of the weaker section.

But we submit that it has a bad sound coming from W. M. Compton, a Southern as follows: man, who adhered to the Confederacy. the Convention of 1868, introduced the o the people of Mississippi; and,

REVOLUTIONARY CHANGES the Constitution of the State; and, nited States and laws made in pursuane

States nor prohibited by it to the States, are RESERVED TO THE STATES of citizens of this State who have heretofore men; of outraging helpless women-an been permitted to vote; and believing that

UNCONSTITUTIONALLY CONVENED,

been thrust into office with the bayonet in constituency, in 1868. For expressions ing the provocation of bad government contempt of their right of fair election not one-hundredth part as extreme, but and unjust and partial administration of at the polls. Other counts in the indict- in the same line of indignant spirit, from the laws. his high tower in the Lunatic Asylum he It should be remembered that it is the is now-pouring his broadsides of denun- daily and nightly occupation of the "imciation into the ranks of those in whose ported scum" who have come South to The correspondence between Col. Mc- name he then spoke. If the people who make their fortunes, to play upon the Cardle of the Herald, and Jacobson of are opposing the extravagance, dishon- credulity of the blacks-to array them in Pilot says: the carpet-bagger clan, is the richest esty, corruption and general abuse of hostility to the whites-and to stir up thing out. The latter sent to the former power practiced by the Radical party of strife generally in order to manufacture at persecutive at p "a demand" for the retraction of an arti- the present day, are to be ostracised and pretexts for Federal military interference cle which he construed to be personally actually outlawed for their course, what in the interest of their infamous party. offensive. The beligerent missive was is to be the measure of the judgment In the Northern States no such occasent through the U. S. Marshall-a sworn which should be executed upon the au- sion for violence exists. The people are "parts whatever may here transpire or covered that the amount expended by der-strap Ames, it was in good condition peace officer. McCardle refused to retract the foregoing resolutions?— permitted to live under governments of "which may be made known, or become the Legislature in printing the Journal of and abundantly provided with all the it was supposed would follow as a matter in the river Jordan before he was made foreign courts are not substituted for State who was in the city, and not well, wanted of course; and after the lapse of about clean. Into what pool has the editor of laws. They are not dogged from pillar two weeks, found himself assailed with a the Leader become cleansed of his sins to post by hirelings and informers who

The richest thing of the season is the opinion in the case of Swann, the prose- partizan consumption. They are not in mode with the fortiter in re." All of Ames on the second ballot, he igno cutor of the Newton county citizens, "A hearing," except the execution or judicial process. They are not thrown body guard of young Scanlan to visit the replied so pointedly that they could of justice upon him, is the last into prison for opinion's sake. They are bed-side of a sick father who had been be misunderstood by thing this adventurer wants. Else why not seized by armed soldiers and dragged drawn hither on an errand of mercy to institution over which the editor of Jehiel Railsback, the fellow who carpet- has the prosecution postponed a trial until from their families and occupations be- his imprisoned son. We can imagine Leader presides. We are somewhat after the election? Why should he, the pursuer of these citizens, ask a suspension of public judgment? Is he pursuer, backed by federal bayonets and their capacity of production. They are nature in Judge Hill, as in the rest of persist? Does he court "a little man sustained by the gigantic power of the oppressed beyond the example of the mortals. He holds his place by the grace grape," with the Secret Service money placed at less Gov. Alcorn is a wilfull falsifier, Senate, and a bare suspicion of even his federal government, reinforced by Alcorn his disposal by the Forty Thieves. The appeal of Swann shows that he is not impervious to the concentrated scorn of the people among whom he is plying his calling. His cry of distress with tucky, is more overwhelming than the all this pack of soldiery and mercenaries most sanguine ventured to expect before at his back hounding the victims of his the election. The Louisville Ledger pursuit reminds us of the luckless hunter in his lair. "Have you got him?" exclaimed his companions in the chase. "Got him, h—1!" replied the pursuer, "Got him, h—1!" replied the pursuer, who entered the domain of the wild beast The only test vote ever had between the in his lair. "Have you got him?" exparties in Kentucky, since the enfranchise-"He has got me!"

Do you wish to break down political ngs? Then register and vote the Caught Again!

Our readers have had repeated exam-The editor of the Leader (Dr. Comp- ples of the recklessness with which the ton,) publishes that after his labors of the editor of the Leader plunges head-overof the measure consists in its appropria- day are over, he trims his midnight lamp heels into statements which have not the

into the State Treasury a large bonus for er in this State, because while acquiescing last election that he could not endure the

If passed will entirely change that instru-whatever have been submitted! nestion submitted to a popular vote was the naked proposition of "Convention" "No Convention." As for doing away with the rights and priviliges the colored people," as charged by the Leader, the act calling the Convention expressly precludes the idea of such

Sec. 11. * The said Constitution

restrict, impair or in any way interfere OR RESTRICTING SAID RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES

Mind you, in their determination to avoid the possibility of misconstruction. from, and after promising that he would extravagant laudation of the out-at-elappoint men learned above their fellows bow fellows who spell pray with an e- thority to withhold from the Convenwould come well from one of their num- tion the power even to submit a proposiber who has been raised from infancy tion of the sort described, much less to pass to believe that the white population of it! They were resolved to keep their the trades and professions. The matter the South are one zemove frombarbar- skirts clear from the charge of that im. of the Leader is generally distasteful to sm, and that they forfeited all their putation, but it seems that they have THE CLARION editors, as is abundantly rights of person and property when they signally failed, if all radical editors are as shown by their unceasing warfare against essayed to form a new government of reckless of facts and as poorly informed that Journal. Indeed, although it may

The real object of the Convention is explained in the preamble of the act from which we have quoted above. It is many respects, burdensome and oppressive have been free enough in combatting the De to the people of the State, and is, in many to the people of the State, and is, in many of its provisions, ill-adapted to their wants upon the citizens of the State by this Genral Assembly, are, in the judgment of this the ruin of our people: and whereas, the anxious to amend the said Constitution in many particulars, consider it their duty to for earrying that will into effect when as-

Radical opposition to the Convention was and privilege' of the colored sovereigns. which the public robbers have opened to nature as the northern people may read, having occurred in Mississippi and other the concluding scenes in the instances it the means of plucking from the pocket Do the people of Missis sual unfairness, generally forgets to state which follows the commission of crimes in

Our vigilant cotemporary, the Vicksburg Herald, anticipates our answers. when it says that if crime is not punished in Mississippi, the blame belongs to a in all its departments, Executive, Legislative and Judiciary.

But we do not concede that lawlessness arraigned the Radical rulers who have the organ of an intelligent and gallant the South as in the North, notwithstand- ing whatever.

evidence of civil order and obedience."

of the work upon the road.

A SOUND SUBSCRIBER.

SCOOBA, KEMPER Co., Aug. 6, 1871. MESSES. POWER & BARKSDALE :- The report was public in the streets of the little village of Scooba yesterday, that's Radical paper called the Leader, was published in your office. If the report be true, you will please strike my name from your books and save me the trouble of sending THE CLARION back to your office. J. M. CANNON.

Candor constrains us to admit that, thus far, the Leader has been printed in the job rooms of THE CLARION establish- to deny it, and the the use of the Institution, and to give in the reconstruction acts they did not presence of a negro or a carpet-bagger on ment. Indeed, it has never been our were invited to hold that they were the sum of all politi- his ticket-he states that the Conserva- purpose to conceal that fact, and we had was true. Happen cal wisdom and justice; to establish that tives of North Carolina have submitted supposed that all of our subscribers to think that the they are unworthy-to be entrusted with smendments to the Constitution of that knew it. The performance of this work would not have ventured so making and executing the laws by which State which (we now quote from the for the Leader, was not a "labor of love" statement without what he with us. The fact is, we have a very plege or committal of extensive printing establishment, comment, and virtually do away with every right plete in every department, and we are and privilege the colored people enjoy under the prepared, and willing, to execute all jobs, the inquiry in that form; and resconstitution and Laws of the United States, and for men of all parties, in the best style if they were not so pledged to of art, and on fair terms. We assure right does the editor of the Lead our subscriber at Scooba, that we maken that they would have done an an casonable profit, pecuniarily, on all the consistent with all their prowork we do for the Leader. We have tions and so uttorly at y had a business eye to the contract. This known sentiment of those printing has not only given us some of presented. To the rethe sinews of war, with which to carry published on the battle with Radicalism, but it has They all he given employment to some very worthy that is that the charge printers of the "household of the faith- blance of truth to rest upon ful." We are at a loss to see how the Senator Hardy's Fointed principles or integrity of THE CLARION newspaper can be affected, in any way, by the sentiments contained in the diversified publications which, in the course and no such proposition was e with the rights, privileges and immunities of trade, may emanate from our printing any caucus while

Our business is, to serve the general to the Constitution of the United States; or public, in the way of printing and book- hearing, either in a Democratic propose ANY AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTI- binding. A Democratic merchant, we TUTION OF THE STATE IN ANYWISE IMPAIRING SUPPOSE, would not he state to serve a Ames under any circumstances Radical customer. A lawyer would faithfully manage the cause of a carpet-bag elient. Nay, a doctor of medicine would apply remedies, and save the worthless life of the meanest of the carpet-bag vermin, for the usual professional fees.

And, this is true, in reference to all savor a little of egotism, we are free to confess that we had felt comfortable in the belief that we had not come off second best in our tilts with the Leader. There bers were can be no danger in error, when truth is left free to combat it; and, surely, we eratic members so far as heresies of the Leader. Now, although we we really think that our Scooba subscriber is rather too sensitive about this matter, and wrote the foregoing letter without comprehending our motives and position; still, we canthat a majority of the voters of the State are not, for the life of us, get angry with him. On the contrary, his strenuous adopt measures for ascertaining the will of opposition to the Radical party gives us their constituents, and to provide the means It will thus be seen that the real cause of front ranks of the great liberating army.

As for striking the name of this subnot that it would 'do away with every right scriber from our list, why, we cannot to do so. think of such a thing, unless, on a second but that it would close up the avenues and mature thought, our friend shall command us to do so. One subscriber is the pockets of the tax-payers. Hence not much to The Clarion; but one such a subscriber is a host within himself.

To quiet, still further, the tempestuous feelings of our friend, we will state that was a Cor joyed for some weeks, and no longer have pies-the almost invariable punishment of the enemy a portion of the cash which put an end to the "gathering up of he uses for the oppression of our people.

Mr. Thomas Scanlan is still incarce-State Administration, which is Radical rated for refusing to submit to the inquisition of a majority of Radical jurors Pilot into his political principles, organization | On page 104, Auditor's and associations. But not for refusing the head is as rife here as in the Northern States. to answer any and all questions which tures on Exempting the example of unmention- have been propounded to him in referable outrages at which human nature ence to the Ku Klux Klan, of which he to perform in such capacity to the people of shudders, and which are due to the licen- has solemnly avered he is not a member, adds to the tious teaching of the Radical leaders, and of whose organization and member- express of the La This is the way Dr. Compton spoke as crime is not of so frequent occurrence in ship he has also averred, he knows noth- the aggregate according to

The facts prove not only that his treat- Amount drawn underment is wanton persecution for opinion Appropriation to Sergean sake, but that the jury has prostituted itself into a mere partizan agency, having for its object the development of the plans, or supposed plans of campaign of its political opposers. Nevertheless, the

There is, in the Scanlan case no attempt secution is the fact Judge Hill went him-And the Leader adds further, in refer-

are bribed to work up cases for prosecu- ence to the Judge, that he is a kindtion under pretence of enforcing the laws hearted man, combining in the perform though really to furnish pabulum for ance of his labors on the Bench, "suanities the Legislature would have voted arrested on fabulous charges manufac- which, is no doubt true. It was very the letters of Messrs, Stone, Roane, Ha tured for the occasion without warrant, humane in him to constitute himself the Phillips, Mitchell-all of whom cause their influence is supposed to be in that when he conducted his prisoner rious to see what he has to the way of professional office-seekers and back to the felon cage, the iron door of sponse to the straight-forward the spoilsmen. But not so with the people the prison grated harshly on his sensitive of these gentlemen? Will the take less of Mississippi. They are robbed beyond nerves. But after all, there is human the charge, or does he contamacion most hideous despotism. And yet, un- of a vindictive and unscrupulous Radical notwithstanding all these provocations to reluctance to execute the malignant purviolence "the people present an unbroken poses of that infamous conclave who reppresent the blind rage of a revengeful presiding. They adopted measures in faction, would cost him his official head. The Directors of the Vicksburg and Does the county poor ever quarrel with Memphis Railroad met in the former the Poor-House? Judge Hill, kindcity on the 9th inst., and elected the fol- hearted and averse as his better nature lowing officers: Gen. Wirt Adams, must be to the work he is performing, mittee, as follows: President; Wm. A. Fairchild, Secretary; has no idea of losing his office, any long be able to chronicle the beginning with the Lunatic Asylum perquisites.

Recently it was charged of the Leader, and con

Representative Hart, of Ch. Says the Charge is I peris LODE, MISS., Aug.

GENTS:-I beg leave to a harge as to my voting for A roundless, and has no found Representative Currie, of Sac Speaks What He Knowed Mimself and What He

of a Conserva-

At-Arms of House, act

propriation to Sergeant at-Arma of approved July 18 Appropriation to Secretar

Sound to the Cone, -The Consers tives of Jasper county had a fine meetis holding a general County Convention and laid down a platform, brief but con sons in the enjoyment of civil and reliberty. Do you wis toh aid in over-throwing Then register and vote against the adherents of the present State government. a consequent reduction of taxes. Total Control of